

tfff gala night

The Trinidad and Tobago Film Festival (tfff) held its formal opening night gala at the National Academy for the Performing Arts (NAPA) on September 19.

Lisa Agostini, left, Giselle La Ronde-West and hubby Heathcliff.

Actors Omar Jarra, left, Kernell Alexander and Renaldo Bachan.

After the cocktail reception, guests were ushered into the Aldwyn Roberts, Lord Kitchener Auditorium, for the world premier of the film, Green Days by the River, based on the book written by Michael Anthony in 1952. Anthony who made a cameo appearance in the film interacted with guests at the event.

Green Days by the River cast with director Michael Mooleedhar at right, and producer Christian James, fourth from right.

The entire cast along with director Michael Mooleedhar and producer Christian James also strutted on the red carpet.

Jean Michel Gibert, left, Selwyn Henry, Lorraine O'Connor and Dana Shayegan.

Green Days won the best TT feature and people's choice for best feature film narrative at the tfff awards on Tuesday. The film opened to the public on Tuesday.

Agriculture Minister Clarence Rambharat and his wife Camille