Excitement is high for the film adaptation of Michael Anthony's 1967 coming of age novel Green Days by the River.

The movie will open the Trinidad and Tobago Film Festival on Tuesday, September 19 with a red carpet gala and screening to be held at the National Academy for the Performing Arts (NAPA),

Director Michael Moleedhar and two of the stars from the film, Sudai Tafari and Anand Lawkaran dropped into The Lounge to give us a glimpse into what we can expect when the movie opens this weekend and goes into nation-wide release from September 27.

Tickets for the premiere can be purchased at the NAPA box office, or ordered on line at: <http://tffilmfestival.com/shop> or call the office at :621-0709
